TESTIMONY

While in college, I registered for classes in religion and also at local churches. At the end of these classes I became disillusioned because the churches seemed to be divided over petty differences. I grew thirsty for knowledge.

I came to Atlanta, where I was introduced to The Foundation Faith of God. The Celebration (worship service) on Sunday is interesting and different. I attended workshops, the Bible Study and the 'Path of Life' class, which were spiritually stimulating and immensely rewarding. Through the "Circle of Power' prayer fellowship I have been blessed to channel healing to emotionally and physically ill people, and have received healing myself.

One of the most important things I have learned through The Foundation Faith of God is to ask God's help in gaining freedom from oppression by evil and negativity, which has made a major difference in my ability to cope with the world. I remain an optimist. God has a plan for me.

Praise God for The Foundation Faith of God!

A TRIBUTE

This appeal would be very incomplete without a deep and heartfelt tribute to all the individuals and organizations who constantly support our work for our Lord Jesus Christ. Space does not permit us to mention everyone by name, but we would like to especially thank our printers, who donate their services, our typesetters, paper suppliers and others, who give special rates, those who donate furniture or food, or hardware or hotel accommodation and much much more, which all enables us to do a far more effective job for the Lord than would be possible without such generous and wonderful help.

Our special thanks also to Robert Kellar, full-time assistant to the ministry, to Margery Cunningham, who often seems like a full-time assistant!, and to many other devoted Disciples and helpers, to those who through your financial generosity enable the ministry to grow and prosper, to all members of the Circle of Power and others who write or call testifying to the glory and healing of God, to Chaplains Charles Riggs and Mitchell Winton at U.S.P., Atlanta and Atlanta Women's Transitional Center respectively and to Geri Turner, State Coordinator of volunteers, all of whom have helped immeasurably with our prison ministry, to Jane Culpepper, Anne Higgins and others, who have helped in our ministry to animals, and to the many radio and television stations and newspapers, which have carried God's message.

In the name of Jesus Christ we salute and thank you all.

FAITH CENTER—A STORY IN PICTURES

"For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith – and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God – not by works, so that no one can boast."

Ephesians 2:8-9

My 7 year old son, Isaac, came home on Saturday after a week away with some friends, and as I always do on Saturday I gave him his allowance. He declined it, saying that since he had not been around for a week to help out he should not receive his allowance. I was both touched and taken aback! After I explained that he got his allowance because God and I love him, not because of his 'works,' he was happy enough to accept it! Still, it was a bit of a lesson in the difference between grace and works, and the Holy Spirit put it in my mind as I came to write this, our annual fund-raising appeal!

Just thinking about it, I had conceived of this appeal as a catalog of the works of this ministry. I planned to tell you of all the different projects, outreaches and pastoral work this ministry is involved in, and on the basis of all these good works to ask you to send in your contribution. When you think of it it's very logical, but the Holy Spirit had other ideas! This is what He said to me, "Why do you justify your appeal. You do the work of the Father, which needs no justification. Your supporters and readers know this, besides they know already what you do. Communicate instead the joy and pleasure of serving the Lord. 'Ask and you will receive.'"

And so was born this story in pictures. We pray that the satisfaction and fulfillment we experience will likewise touch you and that you will know the joy of giving generously to our Lord's work as it manifests through this Ministry. God bless you.

Faith Center is the headquarters of The Foundation Faith of God in Atlanta. Worship services (Celebrations), workshops, counseling and healing (both in person and by phone), meetings, Bible studies, and prayer groups are conducted here. Special outreaches, including missions to other cities, Bible studies and workshops in the community, the design and distribution of large quantities of Christian literature, and radio and television programs are planned and based here.

As a center for healing and counseling, Faith Center provides many services, and ministers frequently need to respond to emergency calls such as sudden illness, accidents, family problems and so on. Our Lord, through His servants, blesses many with hope driving out despair, healing overcoming sickness, and love conquering fear.

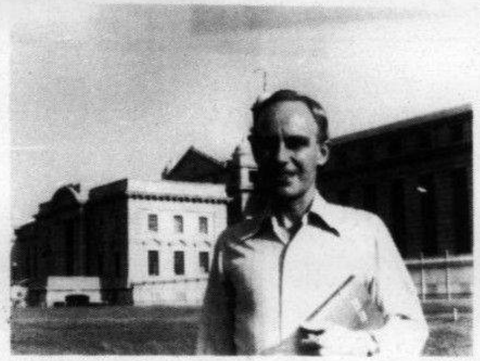
Robert Kellar, full-time assistant to the Ministry, helps conduct the Friday prayer meeting at Atlanta Women's Transitional Center.

THE PRISON MINISTRY

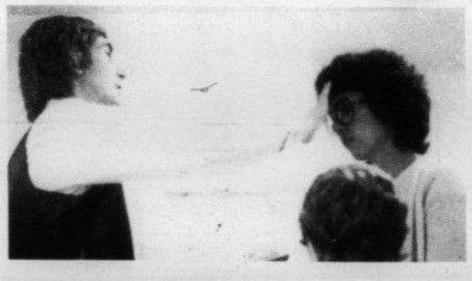
The Prison Ministry is run by Rev. John Christopher (shown below on a counseling visit to U.S.P., Atlanta), and Rev. Charity Benedicte (shown left with some of the residents of Atlanta Women's Transitional Center – a half-way house – after she conducted the Friday morning prayer meeting). Counseling is also given by both ministers at Death Row at the State Prison in Jackson, Georgia.

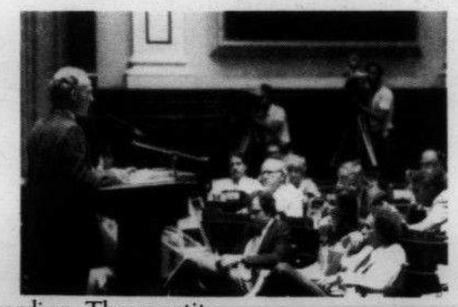


Rev. Jana Bernadette: her duties include organizing and playing the music for Celebrations, and coordinating the Circle of Power.

THE CIRCLE OF POWER

The Circle of Power is an international healing prayer fellowship headquartered at Faith Center. Each month members receive a list of prayer projects compiled from the letters and calls we receive, and devote time each day to praying for those on the list. The Lord has blessed the fellowship with many wonderful healings. Each month we publish one or more testimonies to His healing power. Members often join together to pray. Our photo (above) shows some of the members of the fellowship in Ghana, West Africa, praying over letters requesting healing. In Atlanta, the fellowship meets at Faith Center every Thursday at 7:30PM.





ANIMAL ACTION

God's creatures are beautiful and rewarding. The sanctity of all life, having been created by God and put in our care, has long been a subject of great concern to this Ministry. We are totally opposed to animal experimentation (vivisection), which causes untold suffering and often death to 70 million animals each year in the U.S. We believe that such experiments are utterly contrary to the teachings of Jesus, and consequently can only bring far more suffering upon mankind. Our photo (above right) shows Rev. John Christopher speaking at a public hearing at the State Capitol in Atlanta on behalf of proposed legislation to make dog-fighting a felony in Georgia.
